This privacy policy sets out the way we use your information if you are not a resident of the United States: who we are, what we collect, how we collect it, how we use it, why we use it, who we share it with, and the rights to which you may be entitled.

The use of Climate Reality's websites is intended only for persons who are the age of majority in their jurisdiction, or older. If you have not reached the age of majority in your jurisdiction, you must only use our websites under the supervision of a parent, legal guardian, or responsible adult.

This Privacy Policy has been revised and updated as of the date above to reflect our current data practices and to ensure continued compliance with applicable privacy laws and regulations. We encourage you to review this policy periodically to remain informed about how we protect your personal information.

1 Who we are

We are The Alliance for Climate Protection d/b/a The Climate Reality Project, a U.S.-based 501(c)(3) non-profit, with registered offices at 555 12th Street, NW, Suite 350, Washington, DC 20004, USA and our affiliated organizations that host our programs in different countries as listed below ("Climate Reality" "we" "us" "our"), the Data Controller.

Information we share with third parties.

There are certain circumstances where we may transfer your personal data to employees, contractors and to other parties.

- We may share your information with certain contractors and service providers. They may process your personal data for us, for example, if we use a marketing agency, or travel service provider (to arrange travel and/or accommodation for speakers and other participants of events). Other recipients/service providers include public relations agencies, IT specialists, database providers, production assistance, screening specialists, logistics contractors, backup and disaster recovery specialists, and email marketing providers.
- Our suppliers and service providers will be required to meet our standards on processing information and security. The information we provide them, including your information, will only be provided in connection with the performance of their function.

Your personal information may be transferred to other third-party organizations in certain scenarios:

- If we are reorganised into a slightly-different non-profit organization, information may be transferred to the succeeding non-profit organization who can continue to provide services to you;
- If we're required to by law, or under any regulatory code or practice we follow, or if we are asked by any public or regulatory authority – for example requests by law enforcement;
- If we are compelled to disclose the names and contact information of people who have signed petitions, we may provide the information to verify the accuracy of the petition and to prevent multiple submissions by the same person.
- If we are defending a legal claim your information may be transferred as required in connection with defending such claim.

Your personal data may be shared if it is made anonymous and aggregated, as in such circumstances the information will cease to be personal data.

Where your information will be held

When we share your information, your information may be transferred to a country outside the European Economic Area without an adequacy decision or appropriate safeguards pursuant to Article 46 of the GDPR. The risks are that your data could be hacked or misused by those who inappropriately gain access.

We store our information on cloud servers located in the United States, where our offices are and where we on-board our Members and Subscribers, which does not have equivalent data protection laws to those applicable in Europe and is not subject to an adequacy decision under the GDPR. The transfer of this information is governed by data protection addenda including standard contractual clauses (SCCs) approved by the European Commission.

We will only transfer data to jurisdictions outside the scope of the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) where the appropriate safeguards set out in the GDPR are in place. *See relevant country below.

We are happy to provide you with copies of the data privacy addenda with regulator-approved SCCs, which you can request from us via our contact information, below.

Additional Disclosures for Individuals in Brazil

When we share your information, your information may be transferred to a country outside Brazil without an adequacy decision or appropriate safeguards pursuant to the LGPD. The risks are that your data could be hacked or misused by those who inappropriately gain access.

We store our information on cloud servers located in the United States, where our offices are and where we on-board our Members and Subscribers, which does not have equivalent data protection laws to those applicable in Brazil and is not subject to an adequacy decision under the LGPD. The transfer of this information is governed by data protection addenda including standard contractual clauses (SCCs) approved by the Brazilian National Data Protection Authority.

We will only transfer data to jurisdictions outside the scope of the Brazilian General Data Protection Law (LGPD) where the appropriate safeguards set out in the LGPD are in place.

We are happy to provide you with copies of the data privacy addenda with regulator-approved SCCs, which you can request from us via our contact information, below.

3 Your rights

You have certain rights in relation to your information including a right to access or to correct the information we hold on you.

Data Subject Rights

We've listed the rights you have over your information and how you can use them below. These rights are subject to restrictions in the European General Data Protection Regulations and, subject to the exemptions in that law, may only apply to certain types of information or processing.

Your rights and how to use them:

- We need your consent for some of the ways we use your information, for example for marketing. You can remove that consent at any time. You can email your request to us at GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com. To remove your consent for particular uses, you can use this form. To remove your consent for any use and be forgotten, you can use this form.
- You can ask us to confirm if we are processing your personal data and, where that is the case, you can ask us to access to the personal data in an easily readable format. You can email your request to us at GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com.
- You can ask us to correct or update your information if it's wrong or has changed. You can email your request to us at GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com or by using this form.
- You have a right to be forgotten and you can ask us to delete our copy of your information. You can email your request to us at GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com or by using this form. It may not always be possible for you to use this right if, for example, if it is still necessary for us to perform the contract or we need to keep the information by law or because of a legal dispute.

- You can ask us to restrict how we use your information. You can email your request to us at GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com or by using this form.
- You can ask us to help you move certain of your information to other companies. To help with that you have a right to ask that we provide your information in an easily readable format to another company. You can email your request to us: GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com or by using this form.
- You can ask us to stop using your personal information, but only in certain cases. You can email your request to us at GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com or by using this form.

Please note that the withdrawal of your consent, as well as any request you submit for the elimination, update, or correction of your personal data, does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out prior to such withdrawal or request. This means that any data processing activities we conducted based on your original consent or in accordance with our stated purposes remain valid and legally compliant, even after you exercise these rights. We encourage you to contact us at GDPRprivacy@climatereality.com if you have any questions about how your prior data was processed.
